

Wales PEN Cymru is one of 145 PEN centres in more than 100 countries across the world. It is affiliated to PEN International which is the leading voice of literature worldwide.

PEN promotes literature and defends freedom of expression. It campaigns on behalf of writers around the world who are persecuted, imprisoned, harassed and attacked for what they have written. It has committees representing writers in prison, translation and linguistic rights, women writers and a peace committee.

Wales PEN Cymru offers Welsh writers the opportunity to join an international organisation and belong to a world community fighting for free expression. Members will receive invitations to events and debates with international writers and activists and be encouraged to take part in PEN campaigns in Wales and further afield.

Membership is open to writers, journalists, translators, editors and students of creative writing who subscribe to the aims of the PEN charter:

For further details or to join and pay online go to: www.walespencymru.org or email: walespencymru@gmail.com

Annual membership fee £4 a month (waged) £2 a month (unwaged)

N.B. It is possible to be a member of more than one PEN Centre but you may only vote at one. Please inform us if you belong to another PEN Centre and where you intend voting.
